Mr. Gilbert A. Robinson
 Acting Director
 United States Information Agency
 Washington, D. C. 20547

Dear Gil:

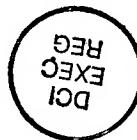

Thanks for your recent letter to Bill Casey and for USIA's new booklet describing the U.S. Foreign Press Centers.

As a matter of CIA policy, we long ago established that domestically we are unable to accommodate the foreign press, which I am sure you understand. The information you sent is nevertheless interesting and useful, especially the glossary on journalistic ground rules.

Thank you again for thinking of us.

Sincerely,
 John N. McMahon
